Announcing the publication of the
FIRST STAND-ALONE HARDCOVER EDITION
A MODERN ENGLISH TRANSLATION of the "Vita B," an ancient account of the life of one of the Church's most devoted sons.

MYSTIC, EXORCIST, REFORMER, MIRACLE WORKER, PEACEMAKER, FOUNDER, ARCHBISHOP,
APOSTLE OF THE EUCHARIST, AND SO MUCH MORE...

Wealthy, handsome, educated, affable, and loved by all, Norbert of Xanten was a man of the world. He denied himself nothing, and left nothing that he desired untried. Following his dramatic conversion at the age of about 35, he became a faith-filled preacher, inspiring countless men and women to embrace the monastic life. He courageously engaged the challenges of his time: corruption, petty wars, oppression of the Church, heresies, and more. The strikingly similar challenges facing the Church and world today suggest that St. Norbert is a intercessor uniquely suited for our times.

Meet this exemplary saint who spoke then — and still speaks to every people, up to our times — of the needed renewal of Christian life.

THE LIFE OF SAINT NORBERT

Illustrated throughout with images from the engravings by Theodorus and Cornelius Galle, this book also includes prayers and devotions to St. Norbert, and makes a fitting gift for all Christians striving to live the Gospel message in our modern world.

“FAITH WAS THE OUTSTANDING VIRTUE OF NORBERT’S LIFE.”

— From the Romsan Breviary’s Office of Readings
for St. Norbert’s Feast Day, June 6

“Behold the high priest,

who in his life repaired the house,
and in his time fortified the temple.

He laid the foundations for the high double walls,
the high retaining walls for the temple enclosure.

He considered how to save his people from ruin,
and fortified the city to withstand a siege.”

— Sirach 50:1-2, 4
